

Acts to Revelation: James

Why should Christians consider it all joy when they face trials? (1:3-4)

What should one do if he lacks wisdom? (1:5)

Why is the man blessed who perseveres under trial? (1:12)

When is one tempted? (1:13) What happens when desire has conceived? (1:15)

What does man's anger not bring about? (1:20)

What is the religion that God accepts? (1:27)

What should believers in the glorious Lord Jesus Christ not show? (2:1)

Can a man be justified by faith alone? (2:24)

Who can tame the tongue? (3:8)

Describe the wisdom which comes from above (3:17)

Why were the Christians to whom James was writing not getting what they were asking for from God? (4:3)

What is friendship with the world? (4:4)

What will happen if we resist the devil? (4:7)

The one who speaks against or judges his brother speaks against and judges what? (4:12)

Why should we not boast about tomorrow? (4:14)

What should we say instead? (4:15)

Why should rich people weep and wail? (5:1-3)

What should one do if he is sick? (5:14)

What will happen if a prayer is offered in faith? (5:15)