

Acts to Revelation: Quiz on Romans

We know nothing of the origin of the congregation in Rome. However, on the Day of Pentecost, there were what from Rome in Jerusalem (Acts 2:10): (A) Jews; (B) Converts to Judaism; (C) Both of the above; (D) None of the above.

According to Romans 1:5, the writer received grace and apostleship to call people from what group of people to the obedience that comes from faith: (A) Jews; (B) Romans; (C) Gentiles; (D) Corinthians.

This Roman Emperor expelled the Jews from Rome according to Acts 18:2: (A) Claudius; (B) Nero; (C) Tiberius; (D) Augustus.

The author of Romans writes in Rm 1:21-23 that although the pagans knew God, they neither did what two things: (A) glorified him as God nor gave thanks to him; (B) Became Christians and evangelized; (C) Repented and sins and were baptized; (D) Helped the poor and honored the Emperor.

According to Rm 3:12, who does good: (A) Jews; (B) Gentiles; (C) Christians; (D) No one.

The author of Romans is: (A) John Mark; (B) Luke; (C) Peter; (D) Paul.

In Rm 1:15, we learn that the author wanted to do what in Rome: (A) Preach the gospel to the Christians there; (B) Baptize the believers there; (C) Give the believers there miraculous gifts; (D) Visit with the brethren there.

The Epistle of Romans is: (A) The most formal of all the author's epistles; (B) Systematic and logical in its arrangement; (C) Profoundly doctrinal; (D) All of the above.

While the Jewish believers were away from Rome, it seems that who took over the church there: (A) The Roman government; (B) Gentiles; (C) Devout believers; (D) Brethren from Jerusalem.

The writer of the Epistle to the Romans says in 15:20 that he does not desire to build on what: (A) Someone else's foundation; (B) A foundation of Judaism; (C) A foundation of paganism; (D) A foundation of the apostles.